

So how did I discover the user on DeviantArt by the name of “ChiareyChan”?

Well, I was busy surfing the internet on my family’s PC and was trying to search up a show from my childhood called “Tobi!”, and it was aired on Nick Jr. in my country and outside the Philippines, it was aired on Treehouse in Canada (if I remember this correctly). It’s a preschool show about a young boy who wants to live in a better place with his little pink rabbit friend named Laloo which uses its ears to fly which I drew for years. The show was Canadian-based. I remembered its title when I was in FunStarArt’s account in her “TV Programs and Animated series collage collection”. Now, I was trying to search “boy with his rabbit friend” thing or “flying rabbit cartoon” which shows a Hungarian Rabbit character named “A kockásfülű nyúl” which looks like some sort of Sanrio character. And

Back to the topic, I found a fan-art of the character by ChiareyChan. Here’s the link

I watched the artist who made it way back in 2021 when I finally got my DeviantArt account. I even follow her other socials too.

I was friends with her for 4 years, until a drama caused outrage to the users on DeviantArt about what just happened to ChiareyChan's behavior. I swear she has been doing this since around 2022 on a Discord server.

And until now, a user by the name of RehaanRashid contacted me after I requested ChiareyChan to draw my favorite character from the Mexican show Villainous. Here's the proof:

What shall I do now? I think I will accept this!
GOODBYE CHIAREYCHAN! OUR FRIENDSHIP
ENDS NOW! 😭😭😭😭😭
We're friends back then, but things have changed due to your behavior, AND THEN, YOU'RE TOXIC?!?! I think people really HATE you because of those weird fetish-y arts that normal artists hate.

But now... IT'S TIME TO SAY GOODBYE NOW!!!
